National Cheng Kung University

Guidelines for Rewards for Students of the Institute of Manufacturing Information and Systems Participating in Academic Competitions

Approved by the Institute Affairs Meeting on June 5, 2025

1. These guidelines are established to encourage students of the Institute of Manufacturing Information and Systems (hereinafter referred to as "the Institute") at National Cheng Kung University (hereinafter referred to as "the University") to actively participate in various academic competitions both domestically and internationally, with the aim of enhancing academic research standards and bringing honor to the Institute.
2. Eligibility: Current students and graduates of the Institute.
3. Application Requirements:
 - (1) Applicants must be enrolled in the Institute at the time of participation in the competition.
 - (2) Each awarded work is eligible for the incentive only once; duplicate applications for the same achievement are not allowed.

- (3) For awards received by multiple participants, a joint application must be submitted by all awardees. Individual applications will not be accepted.
4. Reward Method: Each eligible applicant will be granted a monetary award ranging from NT$1,000 to NT$10,000. The exact amount will be determined by the Director of the Institute based on the availability of funds, the scale of the competition, and the level of the award received.
5. Application Procedure: Applicants must submit a completed application form, proof of award, and other relevant documents. Applications should be submitted within one month after receiving the award certificate. Late submissions will not be accepted.
6. Funding Source: The incentives outlined in these guidelines shall be funded by the University's "Higher Education Sprout Project" or other Institute-designated funds.
7. Any doubts or disputes regarding the interpretation of these guidelines shall be resolved by the Institute Affairs Meeting.
8. These guidelines shall take effect upon approval by the Institute Affairs Meeting. The same procedure applies to any future amendments.
